

Heritage Conservancy's
Garden Party
at Aldie Mansion
Thursday, June 10, 2021

Thank You!

We are so grateful to everyone that could join us at Garden Party this year! It was an absolute pleasure to welcome the community back to Aldie Mansion and to celebrate together.

This is our annual opportunity to say thank you for your continued support of our mission and all that you've helped us to accomplish. Held on a picture perfect June evening, this year's event was even more special as we celebrated Jeff Marshall's retirement and the 40 year legacy he built here at Heritage Conservancy.

As Jeff reflected on his career, he shared so eloquently how we all likely feel about Heritage Conservancy's mission. "I always thought that everyone knew that conservation was about connections; connections to the past, connections to the future, connections to the community, connections to the land. It just seems as obvious to me as the air we breathe."

We hope that you enjoyed the evening and perhaps even made some new friends who share your passion for preserving and protecting our natural and historic heritage. Let's continue to work together to protect what makes our region special.

Your friends in conservation,

Heritage Conservancy Staff

Celebrating Jeff Marshall through your memories...

We met Jeff Marshall 22 years ago. Jeff was instrumental in purchasing our 70-acre farm in Upper Makefield which was slated to be a 66 single home development with 66 sand mounds which would have drained downward to the adjacent creek. Through Jeff we conserved all 70 acres. It is a beautiful horse farm called Fire Creek Farm.

Through Jeff we have learned how important land preservation is today.

Two years ago, we purchased a 30-acre farm on Windy Bush Road in Upper Makefield for our daughter, Ashley which has a conservation easement. There she is raising our granddaughter, her ten chickens, six ducks, two rabbits, two dogs and two cats and vegetables.

Two years ago, we also purchased ten acres adjacent to our farm on Pineville Road which had a 200 year old ice house in extreme disrepair. We have restored it to its original beauty and have made walking paths through the property to the joy of all our neighbors.

We will continue to look for opportunities to preserve more land in Bucks County.

We are grateful that we met Jeff and got involved with Heritage Conservancy.

Thank you, Jeff, for your extraordinary work for the Conservancy over these many years. Thank you, too, for your presentations before our Questers groups.

Bob and Jeanne Hurford

Without exaggeration, Jeff has made himself available to field questions and advised on topics with respect to all levels of preservation, historic structures and moreover, his understanding of regulations that preside over the preservation thereof. There are numerous times I have called Jeff whereas unbeknownst to me, he was on vacation and still took the call. He has made himself 100% accessible as to always be there to help even when he had nothing to gain. His passion and dedication to the cause of preservation is unparalleled. He is always there and willing to help find a solution which provides preservation and protection while remaining real life compliant. Simply put, Jeff is unequivocally the type of professional that you never want to disappoint as he always gives 100% which inspires you to reciprocate the effort to his cause. I can only hope that those who follow him will share in his passion and vision.

Best regards,

For us, Heritage Conservancy's THE most important advocate for Bucks County and Environs. Jeff has been the driving force behind this effort for years. Here in Upper Makefield, Jeff was a forceful voice and professional, expert witness in helping us defeat a developer to ultimately secure vital property for our Washington Crossing National Cemetery. Jeff has been a personal friend of mine and a friend of all land, flora and fauna of Bucks County. Thank you Jeff and please, please try to relax and enjoy your much deserved retirement. See you at the Sycamore!

Robert and Evelyn Easter

Congratulations on your retirement, Jeff.
Thank you for supporting so many initiatives in Bucks County. You have made a difference that is enduring.

Celebrating Jeff Marshall through your memories...

We at Nakashima's are eternally grateful to Jeffrey Marshall for recognizing that the buildings George Nakashima designed and built on his New Hope property were something special and worthy of preservation. Jeffrey told me about his idea and arranged for me to accompany him on a trip to Harrisburg to apply to be on the National Register of Historic Places, which was gratefully accepted in 2008, and that path of recognition thankfully continued. In 2010, we received a plaque of recognition from the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission and in 2014, we were placed both on the World Monument Fund list and became a National Historic Landmark. As a result, we are fortunate to have successfully applied for grants to research, record, repair and restore several of our unique buildings, and know that this will continue to be an ongoing process.

All this would not have happened without Jeffrey's imagination, enthusiasm, and dedication. We have always enjoyed his matter-of-fact approach to idealism as well as his sense of humor and sincere dedication to preserving the beautiful landscape of historic Bucks County.

We are so grateful that Jeffrey recognized the value of 'contemporary' design as well as the older historic buildings, and hope that he will continue to follow this passion even after retirement. He will be a tough act to follow!

Celebrating Jeff Marshall through your memories...

We first met Jeff when we moved to Bucks County in 2017. We were taken by a beautiful property in Suga Road that was built in the 18th century but needed a lot of tender loving care.

Jeff pointed out many of the historic features of the house and we were hooked. On this property was a barn built around the same time that although standing was only a third left intact.

I found Jeff's name online, contacted him and explained that we were hoping to restore it if possible. Within days, Jeff had researched the property and appeared at our door with a complete history of the house and its previous owners. Needless to say I was elated and impressed with Jeff's passion and commitment to historic preservation here in Bucks County. We are so grateful for his involvement and with his help we were able to contact the last remaining daughter that grew up in this house. We are proud to be stewards of this property and will always be grateful to Jeff for his interest.

I have included photos of the barn pre-renovation and as it stands today thanks to Jeff's intervention.

Celebrating Jeff Marshall through your memories...

Thanks Jeff.

You have been a leader and an educator to so many.

We at the Delaware Township Historical Society are indebted to your experience—wisdom—leadership and friendship.

As a small Historical Society we have benefited countless times from your wise counsel.

Helping Roger and Wendy with your analysis of some of the most curious architectural features at Headquarters Farm has been an unfolding history book of it's own—the large door frame in the central first floor hallway—the retaining bar to lock the cellar kitchen door as the day's work ends. The out kitchen with its gallery and fireplace. Your advice has been amazing and inspiring—perhaps with your easier days of retirement we might retain you to write the book!

A second project has been your leadership in the restoration of the Holcombe House. We and the Delaware Township Committee could not have made this a reality without your calm—common sense—steady hand in helping the new owners restore sensitively the wonderful earliest house in Delaware Township.

In recognition of your tremendous support we are pleased to provide you and Becky with an honorary life membership to the Delaware Township Historical Society and an open invitation to all our activities and festivities.

We will miss your skillful management of the unique balance of the dual mission of the Heritage Conservancy of preserving both land and our history—but are confident that Stephen and the Board will maintain this mission and continue your legacy - comforted with the knowledge that we have your cell number!

Best wishes for a relaxing and enjoyable retirement.

The Marshall Historic Preservation Fund

What better way to honor Jeff than to present him, at the time of his retirement, with evidence that the legacy he has initiated will live on through a fund created in his name?

This is our chance to say thank you to Jeff and to recognize his years of steadfast commitment to protecting the character and quality of life of our community. The Marshall Historic Preservation Fund is meant to assure that Heritage Conservancy can continue the important work that Jeff has been an ambassador for all these years, and that we remain unique in our dual mission of preserving both land and our history.

Jeff, Looking back over your 40 years at Heritage Conservancy, you and your family should feel very proud of what you have accomplished. You have been centrally involved in preserving over 15,000 acres of open space in Bucks county, that you can point to every time you drive by. This is equal to 3 times the size of Nockamixon state park and almost 10 times the size of Tyler state park in Bucks County. What a legacy!

That is not all. You have taught all of us Board members, staff at Heritage Conservancy and the general public so much about the beautiful barns and historic buildings in Bucks county that have enriched our lives.

At a personal level, it has been great getting to know you over the past decade. Although you will be stepping down as President at Heritage Conservancy, we all know that we will be seeking your advice and encyclopedic knowledge as time goes by.

Best wishes to you and Becky.

Celebrating Jeff Marshall through your memories...

At my request, Jeff donated his tour to the gala auction at Bowman's Hill Wildflower Preserve; then the BHWP executive director donated a tour of the Preserve to the HC Christmas at Aldie gala. Both events were very popular and raised significant dollars for each organization. Hope this continues with the new leadership at both organizations when large gatherings are possible again!

As a former township supervisor, I also have many fond memories of Jeff and Mike Frank helping Upper Makefield Township develop the case materials in support of our open space bond referendum, which was a resounding success. He then helped our EAC develop priorities for land preservation—he always made time for the community!
